

Creating an Invasive Plant Management Strategy

Follow-up Workshop

Join the Ontario Invasive Plant Council (OIPC), in partnership with Otonabee Region Conservation, Kawartha Conservation and Central Lake Ontario Conservation, with financial support by the Invasive Species Centre, to follow-up with your municipalities invasive plant management strategies, initiatives, questions or concerns and to share new invasive plant information.

Photo courtesy of Lambton Shore Phragmites Community Group

When: Friday March 31st, 2017

Time: 8:30 am to 2:30 pm (Registration at 8:30)

Location: Millbrook Arena
4 Needler's Lane, Millbrook

To Register: Space is limited for this event. Click here to register.

Please RSVP no later than March 24, 2017.

For more information, contact

Kellie Sherman, Program Coordinator, Ontario Invasive Plant Council
kellie@oninvasives.ca | 705.748.6324 x. 243

What to expect

- ✓ An update on the Invasive Species Act
- ✓ An update on other municipalities invasive plant management strategies
- ✓ Working exercises to develop and implement a strategy
- ✓ Overview of best management practices for high priority species

Refreshments and Lunch will be provided!

The Ontario Invasive Plant Council (OIPC) is a coalition of government, non-government, Indigenous groups and academic institutions working together to respond to the growing threat of invasive alien plant species in Ontario.

