The property is a representative example of a 19th century architectural style, and is important in supporting the character of the surrounding area.

Section 5: Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property located at 38 Centre Street in Millbrook, Ontario is representative of Ontario farmhouse vernacular architecture of the mid to late 19th century. The lands, originally addressed as 32 Centre Street, were subject to Consent (Severance) Application Nos. B-80-14 and B-81-14. Two new lots were created. The designated property was renumbered and is now addressed as 38 Centre Street, Millbrook, Ontario.

The red brick house exemplifies Ontario farmhouse vernacular architecture and exhibits Georgian influence in its rectangular plan. It is estimated to have been built circa 1862. The house features a symmetrical front elevation. The original door unit no longer exists, but has been replaced with a door, sidelites and curved transom which is assumed to have been similar to the original. The street-facing south façade is of particular heritage interest, including the steep central gable and sash windows on either side of the front door with flat soldier brick lintels above.

While no other historical information is known about the property, it exhibits features characteristic of typical 19th century Ontario farmhouse architecture and supports the 19th century historic character of the Millbrook area.
